Just Born Reading Room Stars and Saturday Event Series

SEPTEMBER 9, 2017 — . . . AND ALL THAT JAZZ!

Jazz, the blues, and Latin music will capture your imagination and interest. The group IC Collective will make you sway to the rhythm and beat of their music. Learn about the instruments in a jazz band; and enjoy the captivating performances of the saxophone, drums, base guitar—and the singer. (appropriate for all ages)

SEPTEMBER 23, 2017 — "WILD" ABOUT LEARNING

Join the live animals of Wildlands Conservancy while listening to a nature-themed storybook. You never know what animals will show up—you may get up close and personal with a lizard, a snake, an opossum or skunk, or a bird of prey. Stay to create a take-home craft. Note: Wildlands Conservancy reserves the right to photograph participants during activities. (appropriate for all ages)

OCTOBER 14, 2017 — "OH, WHAT A STORY YOUR HANDS WILL TELL" WITH AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

Learn about American Sign Language and join Kim Elliott as she reads the story My Very Special Friend by Dorothy Hoffman Levi. Watch how the Signer interprets the story, and get a quick lesson about deafness and American Sign Language (ASL). Learn the manual alphabet and a few basic signs to help you tell your story in a new way. (suggested ages—4 and up)

OCTOBER 28, 2017 — MEET MCGRUFF THE CRIME DOG

Join City of Bethlehem Police Officer Thomas DeFrank as he talks about what police officers do and how they help the community. Officer DeFrank will share a story with you, and you will get to meet the ever-popular McGruff the Crime Dog—who will be stopping by for a visit. (appropriate for all ages)

NOVEMBER 4, 2017 — FITNESS FUN AT COPS 'N' KIDS WITH R.I.P.P.E.D.

Do you want to be faster, stronger, and better? Welcome to the Official R.I.P.P.E.D. program created by Terry and Tina Shorter. Resistance, Interval, Power, Plyometrics, Endurance, and Diet—R.I.P.P.E.D. is ever changing and progresses through all seasons. Let's all get in shape for the holidays and the new year! Come dressed to move! (suggested ages—4 and up)

NOVEMBER 11, 2017 — EAST MEETS WEST WITH TAE KWON DO

Expand your horizons while promoting discipline, fitness, self-confidence, and leadership. Join Kim's Black Belt Academy and learn the Korean martial art of Tae Kwon Do. A family owned and operated martial arts school, Kim's has been a leader in martial arts training in the Lehigh Valley since 1970 and a frequent attraction at our Cops 'n' Kids Celebration of Reading event. (suggested ages—4 and up)

DECEMBER 9, 2017 — SING ALONG WITH "ANNIE" FOR THE HOLIDAYS . . .

Broughal Middle School Southside Singers, presenting popular musical selections from their upcoming show Annie. Sing along with these talented young people as we celebrate the holiday season and usher in "tomorrow"—2018. Adding to the festivities is ShopRite of Bethlehem's Natalie Miller, demonstrating how to make holiday treats in our Northampton Community College Demo Kitchen—the perfect way to say "Happy Holidays" to all! (appropriate for children of all ages)
